Fiscal Year 2015-2016 REPORT

I. Statutory Authority or Executive Order Creating Organization

Section 257.43, Florida Statutes, provides statutory authority for the organization.

II. Mission and Results Obtained

Mission:

The Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc. promotes and enhances the programs and services of the Division of Library and Information Services for the benefit of Florida's residents. The Friends group supports expanding public access to knowledge, cultural heritage and information so that Floridians achieve their personal, educational and professional needs.

Results Obtained:

In July 2014, in support of collections that are invaluable to documenting women's history and women's issues in Florida, the Division promoted the State Library and Archives of Florida's Roxcy Bolton collection. As part of this promotion, the Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc. sponsored publicity materials, such as brochures.

The Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc., in cooperation with Chief Officers of State Library Agencies, co-sponsored Florida's representation at the Library of Congress National Book Festival's Pavilion of the States in Washington, D.C. on August 30, 2014. This annual event celebrates books and brings the joy of reading to hundreds of thousands of people.

Representatives distributed educational materials on the history and culture of Florida as well as information on libraries and reading programs in our state. Event organizers estimated attendance at the 2014 event at more than 200,000. Copies of Dolphin Tale 2, by Gabrielle Reyes, were distributed on behalf of the Friends to children who visited Florida's booth.

On October 17, 2014, the State Library and Archives of Florida hosted a public program to celebrate National Archives Month. The Golden Age of Florida's Miracle Strip: Panama City Beach, 1930s-1970s was a rotating slideshow featuring over 150 historic photographs of Panama City Beach from both the Florida Photographic Collection and the private collection of tourism historian Tim Hollis. These striking images document the important history of the tourism industry in the Panama City area.

The event, which was presented to the public with support from the Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc., was well attended and helped to educate the public and draw attention to Florida's documentary history.

IV. Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics of Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc., pending approval of the Board of Directors, is as follows:

PREAMBLE

(1) It is essential to the proper conduct and operation of Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc. (herein “CSO”) that its board members, officers and employees be independent and impartial and that their positions not be used for private gain. Therefore, the Florida Legislature in Section 112.3251, Florida Statutes, requires that the law protect against any conflict of interest and establish standards for the conduct of CSO board members, officers and employees in situations where conflicts may exist.

(2) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that no CSO board member, officer or employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or incur any obligation of any nature which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties for the CSO. To implement this policy and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people in Citizen Support Organizations, there is enacted a code of ethics setting forth standards of conduct required of Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc., board members, officers, and employees in the performance of their official duties.

STANDARDS

The following standards of conduct are enumerated in Chapter 112, Fla. Stat., and are required by Section 112.3251, Florida Statutes, to be observed by CSO board members, officers and employees.

1. Prohibition of Solicitation or Acceptance of Gifts

No CSO board member, officer or employee shall solicit or accept anything of value to the recipient, including a gift, loan, reward, promise of future employment, favor, or service, based upon any understanding that the vote, official action, or judgment of the CSO board member, officer, or employee would be influenced thereby.

2. Prohibition of Accepting Compensation Given to Influence a Vote

No CSO board member, officer or employee shall accept any compensation, payment, or thing of value when the person knows, or, with reasonable care, should know that it was given to influence a vote or other action in which the CSO board member, officer or employee was expected to participate in his or her official capacity.

3. Salary and Expenses

No CSO board member or officer shall be prohibited from voting on a matter affecting his or her salary, expenses or other compensation as a CSO board member or officer, as provided by law.

4. Prohibition of Misuse of Position

A CSO board member, officer or employee shall not corruptly use or attempt to use one's official position or any property or resource which may be within one's trust, or perform official duties, to secure a special privilege, benefit or exemption.

5. Prohibition of Misuse of Privileged Information

No CSO board member, officer or employee shall disclose or use information not available to members of the general public and gained by reason of one's official position for one's own personal gain or benefit or for the personal gain or benefit of any other person or business entity.

6. Post-Office/Employment Restrictions

A person who has been elected to any CSO board or office or who is employed by a CSO may not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before the governing body of the CSO of which he or she was a board member, officer or employee for a period of two years after he or she vacates that office or employment position.

7. Prohibition of Employees Holding Office

No person may be, at one time, both a CSO employee and a CSO board member.

8. Requirements to Abstain From Voting

A CSO board member or officer shall not vote in official capacity upon any measure which would affect his or her special private gain or loss, or which he or she knows would affect the special gain or any principal by whom the board member or officer is retained. When abstaining, the CSO board member or officer, prior to the vote being taken, shall make every reasonable effort to disclose the nature of his or her interest as a public record in a memorandum filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting, who shall incorporate the memorandum in the minutes. If it is not possible for the CSO board member or officer to file a memorandum before the vote, the memorandum must be filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting no later than 15 days after the vote.

9. Failure to Observe CSO Code of Ethics

Failure of a CSO board member, officer or employee to observe the Code of Ethics may result in the removal of that person from their position. Further, failure of the CSO to observe the Code of Ethics may result in the Florida Department of State terminating its Agreement with the CSO.
