IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO: All Candidates Qualifying with the Division of Elections

FROM: Donald L. Palmer, Director
Division of Elections

DATE: February 26, 2010

SUBJECT: Use of Nickname on Ballot

The candidate oath form that must be filed during the qualifying period requires you to designate your "name as you wish it to appear on ballot." Case law and Division of Elections Opinions 86-06 and 09-05 permit a nickname to be printed on the ballot along with one's legal name (e.g., John J. "Bo" Jones) when the nickname is one by which the person is generally known or one that the person has used as part of his or her legal name. The Division of Elections opinions recognize that a qualifying officer may require the candidate to make a satisfactory showing that the candidate is generally known by the nickname or the nickname has been used as part of the candidate's legal name before a nickname is printed on the ballot.

If you plan to designate a nickname on your candidate oath form other than a generally recognized shortened version of your legal name (e.g., "Rob" or "Bob" for Robert, "Bill" for William, "DJ" for David Joseph, etc.), you should provide notice of your intention to the Division of Elections well in advance of the qualifying period and make a satisfactory showing that you are generally known by the nickname or that you have used the nickname as part of your legal name. Failure to provide such information in advance may result in the Division not having sufficient time during the qualifying period to determine if the nickname may be printed the ballot.

Attached to this Notice is an example of an Affidavit that also mentions supporting documentation that you may consider submitting to the Division of Elections in advance to show that the nickname is legitimate.

NOTE: Division of Elections Opinion 86-06 states: Descriptive information such as a title (for example, Dr. or M.D.), although not part of a person's name, is permissible only when two persons of the same name or whose names are so similar as to reasonably cause confusion, seek the same office.” Therefore, ordinarily, even if a candidate is commonly referred to as “Doctor,” “Professor,” or “Colonel,” those titles would not be allowed as a nickname or as a part of a nickname unless such descriptive information is reasonably necessary to avoid confusion among candidates.

If you are a candidate who does not qualify with the Division of Elections and you desire to have your nickname printed on the ballot, you should contact your qualifying officer well in advance of the qualifying period to find out what the qualifying officer’s requirements are to allow your nickname to be printed on the ballot.
