Chapter 1: Background

The information contained in this publication is intended as a quick reference guide only. To the extent that this Handbook covers material beyond that contained in law or rule, the Division of Elections offers such material to candidates merely as guidelines. It is the responsibility of the person seeking to qualify to read, understand, and comply with applicable federal and state law requirements, procedures and timelines for qualifying. Forms and publications are available on the Division's website at:

Chapter 5: Things to Remember

Where to File

All qualifying fees and paperwork must be complete and received by the Division of Elections' physical location. The Division's physical location and mailing address is:

Division of Elections
R. A. Gray Building, Room 316
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0250

When to File

It is a candidate's responsibility to ensure qualifying fees, if applicable, and paperwork are complete and timely received within the qualifying period. To be timely filed, the qualifying fee and paperwork must be received at the Division's physical location as specified above by the close of the qualifying period.

Candidates may submit qualifying fees, if applicable, and paperwork by hand-delivery or mail. The Division does not accept qualifying papers via facsimile. All documents must have original signatures.

Attention: The U.S. Postal Service does not deliver mail directly to the Division of Elections. The U.S. Postal Service's designated hours for mail pick-up do not correspond to the qualifying deadline.

To ensure that the qualifying fee, if applicable, and paperwork are timely submitted, a candidate or someone on his or her behalf should hand-deliver the paperwork directly to the Division or use a commercial express courier delivery service that ensures delivery directly to the Division.

(Rule 1S-2.0001\(3\), F.A.C.)

Any candidate oath, Financial Disclosure Form, or qualifying check filed with the Division earlier than the allowed 14-day pre-qualifying period is not valid for qualifying. If filed previously, originals of these documents must again be filed with the Division before the close of qualifying.

Forms

- Within 10 days after filing the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (DS-DE 9), a candidate must file a Statement of Candidate (DS-DE 84) with the Division. In addition to a Statement of Candidate, a judicial candidate must file a Statement of Candidate for Judicial Office (DS-DE 83). - Current forms are available on the Division's website at:

<http://dos.myflorida.com/elections/forms-publications/forms/>

Do not use older versions of forms as use may delay qualifying or disqualify a person from qualifying.

- The Candidate Oath and Financial Disclosure forms should be reviewed carefully for proper notarization. Improper notarization may disqualify a candidate.
- A candidate should type or print on the applicable Candidate Oath form the way he or she wishes the name to appear on the ballot. A candidate's name as it is to appear on the ballot may not be changed after the end of qualifying.
