

AFRO-CUBAN FOLKLORIC MUSIC

Kenneth Burney with Eru Chambo

FREE PUBLIC CONCERT
at Mission San Luis

Thursday, September 10 | 7:30–8:30 pm

Join the Florida Folklife Program, Florida State University Center for Music of the Americas, and Mission San Luis in welcoming Kenneth Burney and his ensemble for
GÜIRO | BATÁ | RUMBA | CAJÓN

Kenneth "Skip" Burney is a master of the traditional forms of Afro-Cuban folk music with over 40 years of experience. He will be joined by his percussion and voice ensemble, Eru Chambo, for a performance called Ogundamasa, which in Yoruba means "strength in unity." Expect a lively performance that illustrates an array of both religious and secular music traditions.
