

In 2016-17, Florida received $8,259,897 and used those funds in a variety of ways.

FEDERAL FUNDS IN FLORIDA

Florida uses Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) funds on a statewide level to benefit all of the its residents. Individual libraries and organizations also use LSTA funds on local and regional levels.

FLORIDA MEMORY

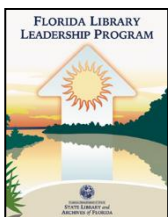

Florida Memory is an interactive website that provides access to Florida history in the form of more than 546,142 digitized documents, photographs, audio recordings, films and video clips. The site offers the opportunity to explore rich historical treasures from the collections of the State Archives of Florida while increasing the public's access to primary source materials. In 2016-17, Florida Memory had over 98.6 million views and 31.7 million downloads from all over the world. floridamemory.com

FLORIDA ELECTRONIC LIBRARY

The Florida Electronic Library is a collection of electronic resources available 24 hours a day from any location with Internet access. Florida residents can access free information from the privacy of their home, office or public school on any device. In 2016-17, the Florida Electronic Library had a total of 12,772,211 sessions and 24,370,719 database searches. felibrary.org

FLORIDA LIBRARY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

The Florida Library Leadership Program focuses on building and broadening the library leadership skills of participants by expanding their access to information and educational resources, developing public and private partnerships as a means to leverage resources, improving services to diverse populations and targeting services to the underserved. info.florida.gov/services-for-libraries/more-programs/leadership/

FLORIDA LIBRARY YOUTH PROGRAM

The Florida Library Youth Program provides information and resources to youth services staff in order to promote services for children, families, tweens and teens in public libraries. Each year, the Bureau of Library Development provides public libraries with program manuals, regional staff development workshops and promotional materials in English and Spanish. Using these resources, local libraries sponsor summer library-based activities, story times and craft programs related to early literacy. In 2016-17, 1,397,585 youths participated in 45,725 programs. info.florida.gov/services-for-libraries/florida-library-youth-program/

FLORIDA LIBRARY WEBINARS

Florida Library Webinars offer web-based training to all current Florida library staff members, helping them better serve the citizens of Florida. Employees have access to an average of three to five live training sessions each week. In 2016-17, Florida Library Webinars provided 1,153 sessions, and 28,675 staff members participated in live sessions or accessed recorded webinars and tutorials. floridalibrarywebinars.org

RETURN ON INVESTMENT

The last return on investment study revealed that for every tax dollar received, Florida public libraries provide $10.18 in economic return.

Florida Department of State Division of Library & Information Services

E-GOVERNMENT AND WORKFORCE RECOVERY

The Bureau of Library Development continues to broaden e-government services for Florida libraries by coordinating individual libraries' e-government projects in accordance with a statewide vision; coordinating creation of statewide e-government web portals; promoting libraries' development of partnerships with government, non-profit and community agencies; and providing webinars to train library staff on delivering e-government services. info.florida.gov/services-for-libraries/e-government/

The e-government and employment services roles public libraries play are particularly important for those who have no high-speed Internet or computer access at home, lack technology skills or expertise, or have difficulty understanding and using e-government services.

GET HELP FLORIDA

Get Help Florida is a statewide portal that provides e-government resources for those in need. The site organizes hundreds of resources by category, enabling users to quickly and easily locate agencies that can assist them, regardless of their needs. gethelpflorida.org

RIGHT SERVICE AT THE RIGHT TIME

Right Service at the Right Time is a user-friendly search engine designed to match patrons with the right resources to meet their specific needs. Right Service at the Right Time helps people looking for assistance with daily needs, housing, healthcare, transportation and employment. rightservicefl.org

ASK A LIBRARIAN

Ask a Librarian provides live virtual reference services for Floridians. In 2016-17, Ask a Librarian had 60,833 live, text and email reference sessions – over 166 per day! askalibrarian.org

FLORIDA LIBRARY JOBS

The Florida Library Jobs website helps libraries find librarians and librarians find jobs. In 2016-17, 573 jobs were posted to the site, with 310,853 job searches performed. floridalibraryjobs.org

STATEWIDE DELIVERY SERVICE

The statewide delivery service facilitates the sharing of resources between libraries. The Florida Library Ground Delivery Service delivered 211,550 packages of library materials during the 2016-17 program year. tblc.org/programs-and-services/delivery/

EXPANDING LIBRARY SERVICES

The Bureau of Library Development's core program, Expanding Library Services, assists and supports libraries in Florida. Bureau staff work proactively with local library staff, governing officials, trustees and community participants to ensure that Florida's public libraries are strong and vigorous. The program improves statewide sharing of library resources. Division staff from several bureaus collaborate to promote digital literacy skills, research electronic resources, implement statewide digitization practices and explore innovation in Florida's libraries.

COMPETITIVE GRANTS

LSTA funds are awarded directly to Florida Libraries to support activities such as early and adult literacy, college transition, continuing education, digitization, STEAM and STEM activities fostered by individual libraries and organizations at local and regional levels throughout Florida.

This flyer was funded under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Florida's LSTA program is administered by the Department of State's Division of Library and Information Services.