ARTICLE IV
PURPOSE

1. This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. More particularly, this corporation is organized to conduct programs and activities; raise funds; request and receive grants, gifts, and bequests of money; acquire, receive, hold, invest, and administer, in its own name, securities, funds, objects of value, or other property, real or personal; and make expenditures to or for the direct or indirect benefit of the Department of State, Division of Library and Information Services (from here on known as the State Library and Archives of Florida), or individual program units of State Library and Archives of Florida.
2. The corporation is organized and shall operate exclusively to solicit, receive, hold, invest, and administer funds and property, including those of the State Library and Archives of Florida, subject to the approval of the Department of State, and make expenditures to or for the interpretation of the collections, maintenance, and upkeep of the State Library and Archives of Florida in a manner consistent with the policies and goals of the Department of State in accordance with Florida Statute 257.

3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this corporation may exercise any and all, but no other, powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4. No part of the income, net earnings, or principal of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any director or officer of the corporation or any other person in such a fashion as to constitute an application of funds not in furtherance of a purpose of exempt organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

5. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided in Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

6. In the event of the complete or partial liquidation or dissolution of this corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, no director or officer shall be entitled to any distribution or division of this corporation's property or its proceeds, and the balance of all assets and other property received by the corporation from any source, after the payment of all debts and obligations of this corporation, shall revert to the Department of State, State Library and Archives of Florida to be distributed exclusively to an organization or organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to federal state or local government for exclusive public purposes.

ARTICLE V

DISSOLUTION

1. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall revert to the Department of State, State Library and Archives of Florida, or its successor agency, to be used exclusively for the purposes hereinabove set forth, provided that such does not impair or destroy the tax exempt status to donations, contributions, legacies, or dues received by this corporation to the extent that such tax exempt status shall be allowed under any applicable law or regulation.
2. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the assets of the corporation are hereby irrevocably dedicated to charitable or educational use; accordingly, in the event the Department of State, State Library and Archives of Florida, or its successor, fails to qualify to receive or otherwise fails to accept the corporation's assets upon dissolution, the residual assets of the corporation shall be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Section 501 (c)(3) and Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any prior or future law, or to a federal, state or local government for exclusive public purposes.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The affairs of the corporation are to be managed initially by a Board of Directors of three (3). Additional directors in any odd number may be added to the Board for terms of office as set forth in the duly adopted bylaws. Directors shall be appointed by the Secretary of State.

2. The names and addresses of the individuals, each of whom are 18 years of age or older, to serve on the initial Board of Directors are as follows:

   R. Allen Miller
   2222 Colonial Road, Suite 200
   Fort Pierce, FL 34950

   Sharon Hartman
